News Release

Deceased Body

September 1, 2021

On August 31, 2021 at approximately 1352 hours Graham County deputies were dispatched to an area north of the old Geronimo store in reference to a deceased body. Graham County deputies along with the assistance of the Thatcher Police Department and also the San Carlos Police Department located a deceased body that appeared to be a male. There were no apparent or visual signs of the cause of death. The body will be autopsied by the Pima County Medical Examiners Office. At this time there has not been any identification made.

This is an ongoing investigation with the Graham County Sheriff's Office.
