Guidelines for the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit

Must be made by individuals (corporations, foundations, partnerships, etc. do not qualify).

Must be made in cash (property donations do not qualify, nor do in-kind donations such as toys, books and services).

Must be made to Qualified Charitable organizations (QCO) or Qualifying Foster Care Charitable Organizations (QFCO) that have been certified by the state of Arizona. Gifts to non-certified charities are not eligible for the AZ Charitable Tax Credit.

How Does the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit Work?

1. Donate to a certified charitable organization (QCO or QFCO)
2. Claim the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit when filing your taxes.
3. For every dollar an individual claims as a tax credit, their tax obligation is reduced by a dollar.

Limits to the AZ Charitable Tax Credit

The maximum allowable credit for contributions to QCOs for single taxpayers, married (filing separately) filers or heads of households is $400; for joint taxpayers the maximum credit is $800.

There is no minimum dollar requirement for the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit.

Arizona state tax credits cannot exceed a taxpayer's current Tax Liability

Tax Credit Key Info

The deadline for making a charitable contribution for the prior tax year under the AZ Charitable Tax Credit is April 15.

As tax credit, the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit reduces an individual's tax liability. This differs from tax deductions, which reduce taxable income.

$400 up to $400 if filing single
$800 max if filing jointly

For single taxpayers, married filing separately filers, or heads of household filers, the maximum allowable credit for contributions to QCOs is $400; for joint taxpayers, the maximum credit for QCO contributions is $800.

To qualify for the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit, donations must be made to state certified QCOs or QFCOs.
